Beginning begins

In the beginning

Of all time

We longed

For freedom

From corruption

From ironic tyranny

From clouded judgment

Now

We must test

Ourselves

Put our egos

Through the wash

And hope

They relent enough

To recede

Relax the reins

Then

Relax their reign

So it all trickles down

Like they adamantly

Promoted

We are the people

We are the keepers

We are the guardians
Of our
Sacred constitution
No one
Can say
Any less
The founding fathers
Did not intend
This greedy
Shady mess
We the people
Have the right
To protest
We the majority
Must exercise
Our power
They are intimidated
By us
Because they know
They are wrong
To enslave us
With monetary
Debts

002

Such a waste

Such a care

Careful

Planning

Without understanding

Without

Compassion

For the

Enduring

Human spirit

Frenetic evolution

Is their explanation

Energetic revolution

Is our response

They can lock

Us up

In their

Unrefined institutions

And

Undefined resolutions

But none of it

Will be

Forgot

003

The sky penetrates

All thought

A familiar color

We intend to keep

Free thinking

Minds

Established

This country

Free thinkers

Will forever

Shape

The world

For better

Or worse

It depends

On our resolve

It makes useful

Sense

To want

To live

In a utopian

Paradigm

But that

Paradise

Only awaits

Those who

Sacrifice

Energy

Time

And thought

004

Receding lies

That made them strong

Our numbers

The shear

Volume of

Our resolve

Is how

This shift

Will bring about

Bouts of prosperity

Leading

To

Everlasting

Growth

It pays to be honest

So they say

But

Obviously

It pays more

To be dishonest

In an

Unscrupulous way

005

No one to blame

For

Their

Broken promises

Promiscuous

Liars

Have become

Our bread and butter

Aside

From a beggar

We should've

Known better

Than to

Trust

Their rust

006

Familiarity

Is no excuse

For misused

Funds

Misappropriations

Followed by

A severe

Increase

In taxation

Mass taxations

They've

Successfully

Disguised

Their alternate

Agenda

And so

We overthrow

And now

We overthrow

Their

Pompous

Inertia

This time

We'll be successful
